Scribner Achieves Perfect 100% Voting Record

Brookfield Legislator Makes it Seven in a Row

HARTFORD- State Representative David Scribner has earned a one hundred percent voting record for all roll call votes taken on the floor of the House of Representatives during the 2005 Regular Session.

The House Clerk's Office released the data on members' votes earlier this week. This is the seventh consecutive year that Scribner has achieved a perfect attendance in regular session. Roughly only twenty percent of the members of the House of Representatives were able to maintain a one hundred percent voting record this year.

"Missing votes means your constituents lose their voice on issues," said Scribner. "When you take on the role of state representative, you have to be prepared for the committee meetings and sessions, listening to the testimony, the debate, and making informed decisions that will impact your district. If you aren't here, you aren't making informed choices. Late nights are no excuse to pack it in. If you leave in the dead of night because you're tired, in the morning you may not like what you find has happened in your absence."

The next regular session of the legislature will convene in February of 2006. Representative Scribner has served in the State House of Representatives since 1999, representing the towns of Brookfield and Bethel.
